

EDUCATION

2006 – 2010 New York University – History of Education, Ph.D New York, NY

- My dissertation was a biography of Frances A. Kellor, the head of the Americanization movement. This movement greeted immigrants from 1906 – 1921. I presented Kellor as an overlooked transgender feminist progressive intellectual who sought to integrate immigrants via participation in progressive activism.

2001 – 2002 University of California at Los Angeles, M.Ed. Los Angeles, CA
Administrative and Policy Studies in Education

- My final project investigated institutional assumptions in schooling.

1993 – 1995 San Jose State University – Teaching Credentials San Jose, CA

- Secondary Clear Credential in Social Sciences
- Supplementary Clear Credential to teach English as a Second Language
 - Both credentials are valid until 2018

1988 – 1990 San Jose State University – Bachelor’s Degree San Jose, CA
Psychology Major with a Minor in Political Science

Inquiries: An Introduction to Education, New York University*

For two semesters, I lead this course in a seminar format.

The course was taught to New York University students on the University campus as well as in local New York City classrooms.

World Civilizations, Vaughn Aeronautics College*

This was a teleconference course – taught in live interaction over a big screen television.

This course also integrated elements of my book culturism throughout

U.S. History, Vaughn Aeronautics College*

This course introductory level course incorporated ESL techniques.

History of Education, College of Staten Island, CUNY*

We had weekly student presentations for this course.
